Christine Langevin:

I am Christine M. Langevin, CPA, CMA, CDir., BComm., principal of a boutique accounting firm for over 26 years serving Oakville, the GTA and Canada.

Passionate about accounting, I have taught Financial Accounting, Managerial Accounting, Finance and Business at Sheridan and have worked with CMA Canada and the University of Toronto with their professional exam process.

I have served the Oakville community as a volunteer since I was a teen, starting with Junior Civitan. I have more recently been Chair and a Director of the Oakville Centre for the Performing Arts Board of Directors, Northeast Oakville Fair committee, sign bylaw committee and founding president of the Halton Civitan Club. After earning my Chartered Director Designation from DeGroot School of Business and The Directors College, I served on the Human Resource Professional Association Board of Directors as Chair of the Audit and Finance Committee; Oakville Chamber of Commerce OABE Judge; and founding member of the Kevin Flynn Mental Health Foundation.

By joining the Board, I plan to contribute to sound financial and risk management, uphold The Foundation's Code of Conduct and values, ensure equitable access to services for the community, and support The Foundation's vision, to build a community where no is left behind.
